11. The reimbursement form for the expenses of the members of the Board of Directors are approved and signed by the President.
12. Convention and conference expenses of the Board of Directors incurred to attend the NAAE Convention and NAAE Summer Regional Conference are paid by IAVAT as listed in Policy 14 and based on equivalent cost of sending allowable voting delegates.
13. Members of the Board of Directors will receive be reimbursed for expenses incurred while attending approved conferences, conventions and other assigned duties at the following rate: mileage at twenty-three (23) cents per mile, unless public transportation is cheaper and convenient; meals at $18.00 per day; lodging at single rate or 50% of double room rate; parking at actual cost; all expenses actual cost up to maximum allowed. Should the combined expenses of the Board of Directors exceed the budgeted amount; the expense reimbursement will be prorated.
14. By agreement with Region IV delegate body attending the Summer Conference in Michigan in 1971 the expenses of any State Association President invited as a guest to any other Annual Agriculture Teachers Conference in Region IV will be paid by that president's own state organization.
15. Career Development Events (CDE's) sponsored by and under the jurisdiction of the IAVAT are: Ag Business Management, Agriculture Sales, Agronomy, Horticulture, Dairy Foods, Dairy Cattle, Forestry, Livestock, Meats Evaluation & Technology, and Poultry. All other contests will be under the jurisdiction of the FFA Board of Directors.
16. Section boundaries shall be reviewed every five years by the IAVAT Board of Directors.
17. The President shall appoint members to standing committees after recommendations from the District Directors and the Section Chairs.
18. Committees working for IAVAT are encouraged to use their own funds to complete their assignments. The Board of Directors must approve exceptions.
19. IAVAT committees shall meet no less than three times per year. One of the three required IAVAT committee meetings per year can be by mail or e-mail for review of documents or voting on committee work, as long as a committee participation report is submitted.
20. Members of IAVAT committees must attend a minimum of two committee meetings per year in order to retain their seat on the committee.
21. IAVAT committees shall annually submit an attendance report showing each meeting, the date of the meeting and the record for each committee member.

22. The retiring President will receive a plaque presented at the annual banquet by the past president or their appointee. All other retiring officers of IAVAT will receive a token of appreciation at the annual IAVAT conference, presented by their successor.
23. Teacher Mentors attending the IAVAT Awards Banquet, who are not registered for the IAVAT Conference as an active member, will be provided a complimentary banquet ticket.
24. Persons who contribute to the advancement of IAVAT may receive the Certificate of Merit and/or Life Membership. Individuals nominated for these recognitions shall be selected and approved by the IAVAT Board of Directors at the spring board meeting and presented during the annual banquet.
25. Once accepted by the Board of Directors, the Supporting Associate member does not need to reapply for membership.
26. Payment and refund of Association dues:
 - A. It is recommended that Association dues be paid at the sectional meetings during the annual IAVAT conference in June.
 - B. Dues may be paid in total with one check or in a series of post-dated checks presented at one time, with a maximum of six (6) checks for first year teachers, four (4) checks for experienced teachers, with last check dated December 1.
 - C. Dues may be accepted at any time; however, any member whose dues are unpaid, either in whole or in part after October 31, shall not be in good standing until such dues are paid.
 - D. First year teachers shall be assessed one-half of current IAVAT dues plus current full dues of NAAE rounded to the nearest dollar. The new teacher entering the school system the second semester or later will be assessed one-quarter of current IAVAT dues plus current full dues of NAAE and IACTE rounded to the nearest dollar. ACTE and Agriculture Education magazine may be in addition to both options.
 - E. No refunds can be provided for affiliated organizations (IACTE, ACTE and NAAE) once these dues have been forwarded.
 - F. If a member dies within the first semester, one hundred percent of the IAVAT Association dues will be voluntarily refunded to the widow or family. If death occurs in the second semester, fifty percent of the IAVAT Association dues will be refunded.
 - G. If an individual leaves the profession of teaching agricultural education in Illinois and has paid their dues, they will be refunded one hundred percent of the IAVAT Association dues if they leave before October 31. If the individual leaves between November 1 and February 1, they will be entitled to a fifty-percent refund on IAVAT Association dues. If an individual leaves the profession after February 1, they will not be entitled to a refund.
 - H. To be eligible for a refund, notice must be made to the Association in writing to the Executive Director.
 - I. All benefits of, by, for, and through the Illinois Association Vocational Agriculture Teachers shall immediately cease upon termination of membership in the Association.
 - J. Sections with ninety-percent IAVAT membership and above will be recognized at the IAVAT Conference.
27. Community or Junior College teachers may be active members by paying all dues or become Associate members of IAVAT upon payment of all affiliation dues and support dues to IAVAT as determined by IACCAI at their annual conference. Upon payment of active IAVAT dues by community college and/or Junior College instructors the IAVAT will reimburse the IACCAI the amount of IACCAI dues.
28. In order to maintain their eligibility for IAVAT Service Awards, all Active, Associate, Retired, and Life IAVAT members must maintain membership in NAAE as well as IAVAT.
29. Any person serving the ex-officio capacity of IAVAT is interpreted to imply: that person has the right to serve on committee with voting rights on committee matters, but does not give that person voting privileges in the annual meeting or executive committee meetings.
30. Any person or organization making payment by check to the IAVAT for any obligation (ex: dues, CDE or conference registration) will be charged a $20 penalty if such payment is uncollectible for any reason. The individual or organization will be considered "not in good standing" until the original obligation and penalty are paid in full by certified check or money order.
